The “DiVine District” hosts ArtStock Willoughby!

Willoughby- October 5, 2010 - The DiVine District collective (consisting of numerous businesses such as My Song Boutique, Spray U Tan, Schultz Upholstery, Molta Bella Pizza, Pure Color Bar and more) is hosting its second art event, ArtStock Willoughby on October 15th from 5-9PM.

The “DiVine” ArtStock is scheduled for October 15th from 5-9pm and is a gathering of artists showcasing their talents. The event will be a creative assembly in which event goers can explore, experience and participate in art! As well, the new sculpture walk, which includes more than 20 pieces situated along the sidewalks on Vine St. from Erie St.-Skiff, will be highlighted. The event is FREE and will host children’s activities, business demonstrations, giveaways, live art being made and much more!

“This ArtStock is fueled by the requests of the artists showing at the first art event and focuses on demonstrations and creating of art,” says Jackie Bertolette, Co-owner of My Song Boutique and project Co-initiator.

“We are celebrating the talents of local artists and we will offer kids activities, group art projects, giveaways and interesting art demos,” adds Rebecca MacMillan, Jackie’s counterpart in this endeavor.

Come join us at The DiVine District ArtStock on Friday October 15, 2010 from 5pm-9pm and be a part of a creative assembly celebrating art! Come enjoy, experience and appreciate art as we distinguish the true beauty of downtown Willoughby! More information at www.thedivinedistrict.com or 440.918.1480.
