Art stolen from DiVine District October 1-3 Weekend

OCTOBER 6, 2010

by stefanietoth

Members of The DiVine District were surprised and saddened to see one of the sculptures on Vine Street was stolen over the weekend.

The sculpture, which was displayed in front of Spray U Tan, was last seen at about 5 p.m. on Saturday night. It was discovered missing at 6 p.m. on Monday.

"We are saddened by the actions of someone who would take such a thing of beauty from the artist, The DiVine District's rejuvenation efforts and the citizens of our community," said Jackie Bertolette, co-owner of My Song Boutique. "The DiVine District collective is hopeful that folks will be respectful of the remaining pieces and any future additions we install as we continue our beautification efforts."

Anyone with information about the whereabouts of the artwork can contact the Willoughby Police Department at 440-953-4212 or their anonymous tip line at 440-975-0873, or return the piece to its location.
